

The Carlisle Inn at Sugar Creek

For those who have not been to the Carlisle Inn at Sugar Creek, you are in for a special treat; beautiful accommodations in the heart of Amish Country, home-style Amish cooking, shopping all around the Inn (a great place to do some Christmas shopping!),

Each room has a wonderful view of the surrounding pastoral simplicity of Amish farmland and walks can be taken in many directions from the Inn.

The Carlisle Inn has a pool, Jacuzzi and exercise room which are open to all guests as well as many comfortable lounge areas for games, cards and conversation. Or if you just need some "alone time" there is plenty of space for that too.

A breakfast buffet with both hot and cold foods is served in the Inn and all other meals will be served in the Dutch Valley Restaurant.

Elise S. Eslinger

The ministry of worshipful music has been a lifetime vocation for Elise.

The talented musician, writer and speaker was a leader in the first Upper Room Academy of Spiritual Formation in 1987.

She understands the role of music and prayer in the Christian tradition and in contemporary spiritual formation. Presently, Elise directs the United Theological School Institute for Applied Theology.

Dick Eslinger

Dick is the Dean of United Seminary and professor of Homiletics and Worship. He will also be sharing in the leadership for the retreat! It will be a wonderful two for one package for our own knowledge and spiritual growth!
